INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S DAY EVENTS

Panel, art exhibit, fair trade artisan sale, & healers for the arts fundraiser
Saturday, March 8, 2014
1-6 p.m.
West End Art Depot
401 N. Mesilla St., Las Cruces, New Mexico

Join us to learn about women’s collective efforts using art and handicrafts to uplift, organize and sustain their communities in the face of violence and oppression. The panel will focus on women’s projects in Chihuahua, Mexico.

1-6 Fair trade artisan sale featuring artisan work by women’s cooperative groups; Healers for the Arts Fundraiser to benefit projects in Juárez (Reiki, massage, acupuncture treatments; also from 9-3 acupuncture by donation at Crossroads Community Acupuncture, 310 S. Main St.) Arte Sin Fronteras, art by artists working for social change in Mexico

1:30-3 Panel: “Creating, Resisting, and Collaborating in the Face of Violence and Oppression: Women’s Stories.” Women working in several community-based projects in Mexico share their stories.

3:30-6 Workshop – re-purpose old shirts, tote bags, etc. Bring your own items or choose from ones we provide. Only cost is for a piece of cloth woven by a Maya woman from Chiapas, Mexico ($5-$8).

COMMUNITY SPONSORS: West End Art Depot, Crossroads Community Acupuncture, Rags to Britches, and Weaving for Justice. For more information contact Christine Eber, ceber@nmsu.edu